Description

Buddha White Widow

Buddha White Widow surprises for the rapid flowering, productivity and high resin concentration, that can be reached in every plant. In addition, it is easy to grow with a singular narcotic effect. A wonderful plant that will catch your eye from the first moment!

The first development of White Widow was the combination of a pure sativa line with an indica hybrid, giving birth, probably, to one of the most widely planted commercial varieties in the world.

Buddha Seeds is highly aware of the importance of this variety, and for this reason, it is the undisputed holder in our selection of classics. We wanted to pay our most faithful tribute to this cannabis queen with Buddha White Widow, respecting the main qualities that keep it at the top.
